Summer Programs for All Ages

The Quack-a-Doodle Parade: Thursday, July 7 at 2:00 pm - Meet local author Amy Laundrie as she shares her newly released picture book. The Quack-a-Doodle Parade, is based on Amy's childhood when her neighborhood would have a spring parade. There would be funky costumes, funky floats and a fun parade around the block. Stop by the library and make a straw hat, get a photo by an old time truck and participate in the Quack-a-Doodle parade fun!

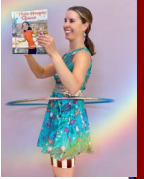

Hoop Elation! Hoop Jam & Hoop Dance with Danielle Lee: Thursday, July 21 at 2:00 pm - Come share in the happiness of hoop dance. Enjoy a performance and learn the art of hoop movement. This interactive program will give you the moves you need to enjoy the art of Hooping. Participants will learn beginner friendly moves using exploration exercises, partner and group activities, and games.

Wetland Cranes presented by the International Crane Foundation: Thursday, July 28 at 2:00 pm Cranes are among the most endangered families of birds in the world. The International Crane Foundation helps conserve all 15 species of cranes. Cranes are ambassadors for conservation representing some of the most important places on earth. Learn about crane adaptations, dance like cranes, and enjoy interactive games all about cranes!

BOOK DISCUSSION & CUBA PRESENTATION

Join us in July for a Cuban experience. We will have a presentation by Larry Harvey about the history and culture of Cuba along with slides from his recent trip there. We will also be discussing the book Of Women and Salt by Gabriela Garcia. It is a novel that captures the lives of Cuban American women in a way that is epic yet intimate. The presentation and discussion will take place on Wednesday, July 27 at 1:30 pm. Everyone is welcome to attend.

New YA Books & Activities

There is an exciting amount of NEW books in our Young Adult area. There are new books, old favorites and graphic novels! Stop into the library and check it out. Also, every Wednesday at 2:00 pm the library introduces a new YA craft or activity for the week. Teens & Tweens are welcome to take their craft with them or work on them in the library. Sign up for the Summer Reading Program for a chance to win a Walmart gift card or a Kindle Fire!
